Number 41.

The Late Dr. J. M. Mills.

We take the following from a communication written to the Herald and Presbyter from Portsmouth. The poem is from the pen of Mrs. Mary R.

Mills:

The following beautiful tribute to one of "God's noblemen" I hope you will publish in the Herald and Presbyter. Dr. Mills was for many years an officer in the Presbyterian Church of Frankfort, Ky., and a collector and treasurer of the Church. He raised the first company of home guards in Kentucky, for the suppression of the war of the Rebellion, and was elected captain. He was the very soul of honor, and scorned to do a mean or dishonorable thing.

On decoration day the division of the Grand Army in Shelbyville, Ill., planted two ever-blooming roses on his grave, and a verbena and a geranium. Then the ladles came and placed fifty bouquets around the grave. He has bouquets around the grave. He has spent the last few years of his life with his brother Rev. B. Mills, at Shelby-ville, being very feeble in health. E. P. P.

MEMORIAL

Of John Mc Farland Mills, M. D., fourth son of Judge Ben Mills, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, born at Paris, Ky., 6th day of April, 1822; died at Shelbyville, Ill., 17th day of March, 1884.

"Whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. Believest thou this ?"-

Name not our brother with tears, Name him with praise and thanksgiving; We stand alone with the dead,
He with the blessed, the living.
Oft in the battle for right

He hath borne scorn and disaster, Now with his crown and his palm, Hears the "Well done" of the Master.

Linked with all beautiful things, From the dawn of his early existence, I hailed him through storm and unrest, As the sailor hails light in the distance. Balms for the wounded he brought, Balsams for hearts that were broken.

And his word that uplifted and cheered,

Many his days of delight, Many his dark nights of sorrow;
Steadfast through each as they came,
He always had faith for the morrow.
Life in its sweetne s he kept True and unstained, so that duty

Gave back in triumph to death, The Christ-like inwrought with its beauty.

Bring him back home for his rest, He shall be safe in our keeping.

Let the heart of Kentucky avail For the peace of her children's last sleeping. Close to the old Frankfort hills. Their crowns with the redbud a-quiver, And forever through storm and through shine,

The deep, ceaseless lull of the river.

For years with a passionate love, Their wild heights of beauty he haunted, And when lost, with a feverish thirst For their freshness and silence he panted.

At the last how the eyes turn in love To the old home with infinite yearning, To the faces we loved long ago,

To the fire on the old hearth-stone burning,

Bring him home; let us hail him once more, His tenderest wishes divining, He was too bright for regret,

Too brave for unworthy repining. Bring him home to his kindred, his dead-He shall be safe in our keeping.

Let the heart of Kentucky avail

For the peace of her children's last sleeping. M. R. M.

ROSEHEATH, KY., April, 1884.

On Wednesday Dr. J. G. Hatchitt wrote out the following petition to the City Council to have the city time changed which was numerously signed:

Solar vs. Standard Time.

FRANKFORT, KY., June 25, 1884.

We, the undersigned, would respectfully ask that you set the city clock by the true time. They respectfully state that the sun is larger than the railroad and they prefer to run by the sun—that Louisville, Lexington, Cincinnati, and all of the country not immediately on the railroad run by the sun time, and they see no reason why this city should go by St. Louis time; that we could then commence work earlier in the cool of the morning and stop work sooner in the hot of the evening; that occasioned by a slight blaze at the in fact the reasons for the change are machine shop of Messrs. Jones Brothtoo numerous to mention.

McAboy, of Paris, a cousin of Dr. petition, when he wrote and circulated the engine fell down at the corner of the following counter-petition.

the following response:

FRANKFORT, KY., June 26, 1884. City Council of Frankfort:

Sirs:—Referring to the counter-petition of Judge Duvall and Gen. Lindsey touching the town clock, the undersigned admit that they dislike to run by the sun or in the sun, for it is possible that they prefer to run in the dark of the moon. We further state that we exonerate those gentlemen from any responsibility in any meanderings of the Republican party; for Judge Duvall at least is one of the honored engineers of the Democratic party, which may account for that party always being just 18 minutes behind time. We pray that your honorable body may not be overawed or unduly influenced by the venerable and judicial appearance of one of these gentlemen or by the military bearing of the other, or imagine from their grey hairs that they speak from age and experience. Their grey hairs are not indicative of their age—they are both young and frisky men, as their dislike to running with the sun plainly shows. We further represent that these gentlemen may be railroad lawyers and therefore wish to make every man and therefore wish to counter-petitoric and the canida, Robt Canwida, Robt Crawford, Willie Barks, Jordan Berry, S E

To the City Council of Frankfort:

We, the undersigned, respectfully protest against the prayer of the petition this day set on foot by the Republican Post-master of Frankfort.

It is true that the sun is larger than the railroad, but it is also true that it is a great deal hotter, and for that reason we object to running by or in the sun. No true clock or watch ever ran by the sun because the sun is never right but once or twice in a year, and that is a good deal more than can be said of the Republican party or any of its office holders.

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.
